

Ready for the Next Step?

SCORE leads small business owners down the right path

Submitted by: Blake Denny

For Immediate Release: Knoxville, TN. (February 10, 2009) - An idea has been dreamed. Plans have been made, and a new opportunity is ready to be realized. So, what is the next step? Many small business owners find themselves asking the same question. SCORE and its counselors help to provide the answer.

SCORE is a national, non-profit organization devoted to educating entrepreneurs on the formation, growth, and success of small business owners. With over 11, 000 volunteers nationwide, SCORE and its counselors possess the knowledge and experience that is applicable to numerous business situations.

Starting a business can be complicated, from generating sufficient capital, to managing employees, to marketing the product or service to the public. Putting all these together becomes a very precise and confusing process, and one which many let deter them. But this is where SCORE steps in, clearing up the chaos and confusion that abounds.

With retired executives and former business owners anxious to share their knowledge and experience, SCORE helps business owners take that next step down the right path to success. So, quit waiting and check out how SCORE helped other business owners find their success at www.scoreknox.org SCORE counselors are also available for contact at (865) 692-0716

-END-